

Help with Photographs of West Sussex

This helpsheet will show you how to search for, save and print images from local photographs scanned from originals held by West Sussex Library Service.

The West Sussex Photographs collection includes around 10,000 photographs of all towns and most villages in West Sussex, some dating back to the 1850s. Nearly half the photographs are of Worthing.

Searching the Photographs Collection

After you have logged on to the public computer, to access the Photographs Collection, double-click on the Documents icon on the desktop.

Choose This PC then double-click Local History Sources.

Then double-click on Photographs and Pictures.

Then double-click on Photographs, then Miscellaneous Photographs

Open any folder to browse by place. Most villages have just one folder, although some larger ones and towns have several. Worthing has multiple folders.

You can use the Miscellaneous Photographs Spreadsheet saved in the Miscellaneous Photographs folder to help you find what you're looking for. You can either scroll down the spreadsheet and browse through the Folder Name column or do a keyword search.

To do a keyword search, select Find & Select on the right of the toolbar. Type your search term in the box and click Find all.

To look through the results, click on Find Next.

Make a note of the file names from the spreadsheets, then look for the images in the relevant folders.

The prefix 'wsl' has been added to each image filename to denote the original is from 'west sussex libraries'.

File names ending in 'a' are scans of the information on the reverse of the photographs.

When you open the relevant folder, to display the files as image thumbnails, single click on View: Extra Large Icons

Then you can see thumbnails of all the images in the folder. Double click on the individual files, to have a closer look.

To print the image, click File from the toolbar, followed by Print.

To save the image, click File from the toolbar, followed by Save As.

The jpeg will automatically save to This PC – Pictures. If you have a memory stick, insert it into the USB port on the left-hand side of the PC monitor. Then find the location in the column on the left, and save your file there. If you don't have a memory stick, you could email the image to yourself through your web-based email account eg Hotmail or Gmail.
